NO FUEL OR CURRENCY SURCHARGES

In these difficult times of instability of prices, it is good to know that Insight has taken the bold step to guarantee no fuel or currency surcharges on all its coach tours (excluding government taxes). Once you have paid your deposit, you will be totally protected and can plan your vacation with this added peace of mind.

NB. This guarantee excludes government taxes, internal flights surcharges (e.g. Eastern Mediterranean products and pre-paid Abu Simbel excursions), cruise company surcharges (e.g. Aegean, River or North American cruises), and international airline fuel surcharges or fare increases (affecting all international airlines). Surcharges within these exceptions are outside our control and may be applied, regardless of payment status, fully paid or not, at any time during the booking process (or may occasionally be required to be paid while on tour).

PREFERRED DEPARTURES

At Insight, we are aware you need to plan your travel arrangements early to take advantage of our early payment discounts, utilise frequent flyer or benefit from airline early booking offers.

PD

To assist you when booking ahead, we have designated a number of tours as 'PD' based on their reliable booking history. In 2008, the equivalent departure of these listed tours sold early, so Insight will operate them again in 2009 over any other departure. If the date of a PD tour does not fit with your travel plans, don't worry; our capacity is adjusted each year to ensure that the vast majority of all departures operate as scheduled.

We anticipate strong demand for Insight's unique touring benefits so a regularly updated list of additional PD departures will be featured on our website at: www.insightvacations.com

NB. Even if the departure of your choice is not yet designated as 'PD' we will not reschedule any tour within 50 days of its scheduled departure date between 01 May & 15 Oct (this is subject to change if market or other circumstances occur beyond our control).

Insight offers you Peace of Mind

GOLD SEAL PROTECTION PLAN

COVERAGE FOR CANCELLATION & RETURN FLIGHT SECURITY FOR ONLY R590P.P.

Most tour operators are interested in their clients only after they reach their destination. However, by purchasing our Gold Seal Protection you get a great deal even before you leave home!

CANCELLATION SECURITY: By purchasing Gold Seal Protection, the full amount of your deposit and/or payment to Insight will be refunded should you cancel your tour for any reason prior to departure from South Africa. This cancellation option covers the Land arrangements made by Insight only and is not applicable to European river cruises and excludes airline deals.

Gold Seal Protection must be paid at time of deposit and is not refundable for any reason. *Medical certificates are required. ^Please note that in some cases hotels require a one night cancellation fee.

RETURN FLIGHT SECURITY: Should you, your travelling companion, or a member of your direct family in South Africa fall sick* while you are on your Insight Tour, we will take care of the additional cost of tickets for your earlier or later return home in the same class of air travel on the first available flight, provided you hold round-trip tickets on Insight's recommended airline(s) from South Africa and have booked them through Insight.

In addition, Insight will refund both you and your travelling companion R90 per day for the unused portion of the tour^.

Now how's that for peace of mind!

SMALL GROUPS ADVANTAGE

Many tour operators imply 'fewer passengers' but don't tell you that nothing has really changed. Their seating remains at 49 or 53. Insight premium tours carry an average of just 35 guests with touring coaches configured for a maximum of 40; creating less congestion when boarding and disembarking and up to twice as much legroom. It is like travelling Business Class.
